Economy Of Agriculture Is Darkest Spot In Our Nation Says Smathers

U.S. Senator George Smathers told Lions and Rotarians at a joint meeting Wednesday at the Country Club of Belle Glade that "With our current national income of 280 billion—the highest ever—our national economy is also at its highest level, except that of agriculture; and, I don't know how to remedy that."

"We have tried rigid parity and a flexible parity support on crops," the Senator continued, "and neither have worked, but the matter is still the subject of devoted study by both parties in Washington."

"The eighty-first Congress was a successful one, we feel, for despite the fact that the Democratic Congress had to face an administration of another political faith, much progressive legislation has been enacted."

"Our Senate leader, Lyndon Johnson informed the Democratic Senators that we would not vote against bills purely for political reasons, and the Speaker of the House, another great Democrat and statesman, has led our Democratic Congress in supporting needed legislation without regard to purely party lines."

The Senator in discussing the appropriations for the flood control program complimented Emmett Roberts, our representative, for his handling of the matter before the appropriations Committee in Tallahassee when Florida's two Senators appeared there in the interest of the Florida appropriations.

"More and more, other parts of the State are becoming to realize the importance of water conservation and use, and are tackling the problem," said the Senator. He promised continued cooperative aid in securing more and greater appropriations for the flood control project, for the sake of basins and protection.

The Senator pointed out the near-top position of the state in appropriations for the military establishment—some $500,000,000 this year.

Following the combined meeting of more than 125 Lions and Rotarians, the Senator spent time with several groups and individuals of the community, and then enjoyed a game of golf with Joe Zeman, local pro who claims credit for the Senator's ability to "keep his head down" and "follow thru". Joe and George are old golfing cronies from Miami and Miami Beach.

The Senator spoke to a similar crowd in Pahokee Wednesday night.

Six Local Groups Enter Boat-A-Cade

Members of the Belle Glade Boat-Ski Club met Tuesday night at the Belle Glade High School. During the meeting the by-laws were read and plans were made for the processing of the charter and arrangements made for the members to go on the sixth annual Kissimmee-Okeechobee Boat-A-Cade Oct. 20-23.

It was announced at the meeting that the club now has 42 charter members.

Club members will also assist the Jaycees at their caucus with the boating on Lake Okeechobee.

Anyone wishing to join the Boat-Ski Club may obtain information by calling the club's secretary, Ralph Prescott.

Local boats in the four-day trip will be met by Commodore Dale Ellis, Shelly Connell, James and John Chumbley, John Thompson, Sam Hender, and the Kissimmee and Carl Cone.

The original Boat-A-Cade in 1950 was the brain-child of W. S. Johnson, a Kissimmee sportsman. That year 75 boats participated in the 220 mile trip from Kissimmee across Lakes Tohopekaliga, Cypress, Hatchineha and Kissimmee, down Kissimmee River to Lake Okeechobee then back to the starting point, or for those who chose to do so, across the big lake to Stuart of Ft. Myers.

This trip takes the sportsmen through one of the wildest and least exploited areas of the state. The importance of the Boat-A-Cade in creating an interest in this unexplored section of the state, aside from being a sporting event, is sanctioned by the Florida Development Commission, C&F&C, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The participants who sail by day and stop at pre-arranged stops at night will be fed and entertained by various civic organizations.

The Boat-A-Cade sponsors expect over 1,000 persons to be entered in the event.

Midget Teams, S.B. And Cubs Tie 7-7

By JACK MCCASKILL
The Belle Glade and South Bay Midgets fought to a 7-7 tie here in a surprisingly well-played game last Thursday night.

South Bay fumbled the opening kickoff and Belle Glade recovered. The Baby Rams moved 23 yards to score in three plays with Lutz going the final six on an option play. Lutz found Strickland open and passed to him for the extra point.

South Bay received the next kickoff and ground out 75 yards to score and tie the game up. Belle Glade had another drive going but time ran out in the first half. Belle Glade's McCaskill returned the second half kickoff 30 yards to the South Bay 40. Lutz fumbled on the next play and South Bay pushed to the Baby Rams' 6 in line, where they were held. Chumbley went 30 yards on a pitchout as the game ended.

Shirley Brothers Open Modern Transit-Mix Concrete Plant Here In Keeping With Glades Building Expansion

The modern, up-to-date plant can hold 1,400 tons of material to be made into concrete—the equivalent of 30 carloads. At present there are seven mixer trucks in operation to provide what Shirley called "Glades coverage."

The sand and gravel used can be unloaded from either trucks or freight cars and transferred by conveyor belts into the bins.

Greater expansion in building has been envisioned in the Glades with the construction of a new transit-mix concrete plant in the Belle Glade area by Shirley Brothers.

In speaking of the new plant on SR 717 at the end of Avenue E here, Claude Shirley said the plant is able to handle three times the present volume of business.

perintendent of public works, and fire chief will be held their present respective salaries.

Still another motion approved Frank Cline's appointment to remain in the police department.

Commissioner Kelley, former police commissioner, submitted a report from the police department for the year ending Sept. 30, showing a department profit of $2,000.

The meeting was adjourned following a discussion of trash collection in the city.

Normally one man and the driver can weigh and load the mixer trucks.

The industry which has grown with the area was started ten years ago in Pahokee where the plant for jolts, blocks and steel is still located. The Pahokee plant employs over 30 workmen in the handling of everything in the hard materials line including steel windows and jalousies.

Stuart Tigers Vs. Rams Here Tonight

By JACK MCCASKILL
Stuart Tigers, fresh from a 54-32 victory over Pompano, meet the victory starved Belle Glade Rams here tonight in a swamp Pompano 54-32. The griddon tussle which should prove interesting and exciting, for several good reasons.

Word comes from the past year, has never beaten the Rams. They opened their campaign with a bang, stomping favored Stuart 21-0. After losing a couple of close ones they broke out in a rash of touchdowns to Stuart's second and third strings in the second half.

The rejuvenated Rams came within a hair's breadth of upsetting highly favored Vero Indians last Thursday and if their shot in the arm holds out they might just turn the trick against Stuart. The Rams indicated to everyone in the Vero game that they could play a bang-up defensive game.

Word comes from the practice field that the team and coaches are making a concerted effort to develop a ground and air offense that will sustain itself long enough to give us scores. Head Coach Ouellette feels that the Rams are ready to go and has expressed his satisfaction with practice this week. He announced that Billy Jackson, injured early in the first game with Ft. Myers may be in harness against Stuart.

Assistant Coach Godwin, who was appointed Traveling Freight agent in Miami in 1939.

Lanier was named Commercial Agent in 1941 and was sent to Belle Glade the following year. He joined the Chamber of Commerce in March 1953 and was elected to the Board of Directors in March of 1954.

Lanier is married and has two children, Ouida and Danny. He is a member of the faculty of the Belle Glade Elementary School.

Why Should Little Counties Allow Their Breed Winners The Whip Hand?

Figures released by the State Commission on sales tax collections during September 1955 which are collections for the month of August, are quite revealing. Three counties, Dade, Duval and Hillsborough, pay almost half of the state's total—$2,900,000 of a total of $5,900,000.

The five high counties—Pinellas and Broward added to the above—pay 60 per cent; the ten high counties pay 80 per cent of the state's total.

The seventeen high counties pay approximately 90 per cent of the total.

Fifty of our sixty-seven counties pay approximately 10 per cent of the total.

Sales tax, race track tax, gasoline tax, cigarette tax and others also go into the general fund for the state's expenses.

If you have Page's monthly pay check in your hand, why allow him to change—Why re-apportionment?

Lakeshore High To Seek SASSC Approval

Plans are underway at the new Lakeshore High School here toward having the school accredited by the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

If the school gains SASSC approval, students being graduated from Lakeshore will be able to enter colleges and universities without taking entrance examinations.

A self-evaluation committee has been formed to study the school with regard to self-improvement before SASSC groups are invited here. About 20 subcommittees have been appointed. Faculty members and community leaders will study agencies and activities which affect the students, for example, churches and recreational activities.

As the program progresses, laymen and business people will be invited to called meetings to discuss various problems relative to final approval of the high school.

Hello sport fans. Here we are again with the latest in the sports. Everyone is talking about those wild and powerful Bob Cats who seem to get better as the season goes along. I am sure you know that the Bob Cats have not been scored upon. Your reporter was at both games and it was amazing to see such a defense that the defensive team set up against their opposition.

The opening game was played at Pahokee, Fla., under the lights against the strong Valters eleven Sept. 30. When the dust had settled and the final whistle blown, the Bob Cats had played to a scoreless tie. They had not won but the Bob Cats had refused to let Valters score on them.

The next game was played here in Belle Glade at Memorial field Oct. 9, under the lights against a strong eleven from Sebring, Fla. Again the powerful bite of the Bob Cats was felt by the Douglas Tigers. Time after time the Douglas eleven from Sebring was thrown back. The Bob Cats line refused to move an inch. While the de-

Care Of House Plants

Soap and water work wonders with dust-clogged leaf pores of house plants. So many homemakers wait that they do not have a green thumb, and their house plants do not thrive. After examining so many of them, it is discovered that the dust and dirt are so thick on their leaves, that no air can penetrate.

It does no damage to house plants to spray them lightly with tepid water once each week, even African violets, Gloxinias, etc., if they are kept out of direct sunlight until dry. In the wintertime, however, it is best to do this chore early in the day so plenty of time will be available for the plants to dry before the cool evening air hits them.

Some plants do not need to be sprayed or sprayed. These are the cactus plants. Watering them is a monthly chore, instead of weekly. But they do need dusting and looking after just the same, as well as fertilizing and repotting. And there is always the exception to the rule; Christmas cactus. This type of cactus may be treated as other ordinary house plants, needing to be watered as often as African violets, etc.

It has been discovered that house plants do not take as much food or water as plants grown out-of-doors. So be governed accordingly. Of course, there are plants that require more water than others. For instance, members of the fern family need much more water than other plants, and should be cleaned more often of dust accumulations.

Most potted plants like to get their moisture, as do their outdoor relatives, by drinking with their roots from below. Use a deep saucer in which to stand each pot for an hour or so. A piece of paper, or the saucer for the pot to set on would be advisable. A wick of some kind, made of cotton, or a piece of string, will aid considerably. Too much overhead watering ruins the foliage.

Watch out for red spider, aphids, white fly, mealy bug, and scale. For aphids and mealy bug use this: soap and water, rinsed off later. Red spider is very difficult to get rid of and very easy to acquire. Remember that it cannot live in moist, cool conditions and that the underside of the leaf is especially affected. White fly sucks the plant juices. Use nicotine and soap and water for aphids or, if very prevalent, fumigate the window or room, using a nicotine fumigant from your seed store. This is a heroic treatment and may be carried on in a large box in your garage some warm day when windows can be opened to get out the fumes.

Of course, it goes without saying, that all house plants should have good drainage. A piece of loosely woven cord, or wick aids in watering the plant from the bottom. It must be placed in position before the soil and plant is placed into the pot, however. A few pebbles in the level of water for the pot to set on will also aid in getting the water to the plant's roots.

The pots of house plants should be kept scrupulously clean. Especially clay pots. These can be scrubbed with scouring pads (even when occupied with plants) and rinsed off with clear water. If potted plants are kept in larger jardinières, the stale water should be emptied from the jardinières often, and the green scum removed from the clay pots.

All dead or yellowed foliage should be removed and all flowers must be removed as soon as they have passed their usefulness as ornaments. Pinch out the top of geraniums and cut back such plants as begonias, which are inclined to become straggly, to make them bushy and to stimulate better blooming.

Loosen the soil carefully on the top of the pot as frequently as possible. This admits air to sweeten the soil. Never use lime on house plants unless specifically directed to do so.

But no plants grown in the house will give satisfaction if cleanliness is not the watchword.

Bamboo May Be Grown Profitably in Glades

County Agent M. U. Mounts and Assistant Agent H. L. Speer will visit the Department of Agriculture Experiment Station in Richmond Hill, Georgia October 18.

Purpose of the visit to the bamboo experiment station is to determine if bamboo can be grown profitably here and to inspect the varieties for uses here.

Speer explained that bamboo could be used here to build wind breaks, and they could also be employed as stakes for pole beans and flower stakes in nurseries. Also certain types of bamboo can be used in the making of paper pulp and in the making of a number of novel items.

First Baptist Juniors

Sixty-four Juniors and workers swelled the walls of the Junior Dept. of the First Baptist Church Sunday School Sunday morning.

Program for the assembly was "Getting Acquainted with our Records," at which time each of the six points for grading were discussed. For each phase of this Six Point Record System a Scripture was given as God's reason for following this system.

The Six Points are: Present, Heb. 10:25; On Time, Ecc. 3:1; Bible Brought, Psalms 119:105; Offering, Psalm 96:8 and 2 Cor. 9:7; Prepared Lesson 2 Tim. 2:15 and Attending Church Service, Psalms 111:1. A poster in the form of a sunflower with six petals was used for illustration.

Read Matthew 5:13-16. With the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. (Romans 10:10)

When a boy had found his way to Christ, he was very happy. A week later he became suddenly miserable and told his mother how he felt. The mother asked: "What have you been doing?"

The boy replied, "Nothing, and nobody has found out I am a Christian."

The elder found a candle and asked him: "Why was this made?"

"To give light," said the boy.

"And that is why you have been saved," said the elder. "Now go out and tell others."

The next Sunday the boy came back radiantly happy again. "Oh," said he, "I must continue to tell others about Christ; it has made me so happy."

We are to let our light shine before men that they may see our good works and glorify our Father in heaven. Thus we help them to find their way from darkness and shadow of death into His marvelous light.

PRAYER
Our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for Christ and the wonder how he felt. The elder asked: "What have you been doing that we may help others find their way to Thy blessed and only begotten Son, our Saviour. For His name's sake.—Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
We are saved to serve.—Fred Pfeiffer (Sweden).

PYTHIUM WILT PROBLEM
DISEASE IN SNAP BEANS

By R. S. COX

Observations over the past two years have convinced the writer that Pythium wilt is the number one disease problem of snap beans in the Everglades area. As most growers can testify, the disease is quite readily recognizable from its very characteristic symptoms. It first becomes noticeable by a sudden wilting of the plant which is soon followed by death. Closer observation reveals that the wilting is the result of attack by the fungus, Pythium, somewhere on the stem. The epidermis (outside portion) of the affected stem area readily sloughs off under pressure of the thumb and forefinger leaving behind a slippery oozy exudate. These two criteria, i.e., a wilted plant and an oozy stem provide a positive diagnosis for the disease.

Plants are susceptible to the disease at all stages of growth, but they appear to be more susceptible during the first six weeks or so.

The disease has been found to be most severe under the following conditions:

1. In low spots in the field. 2. During cool, wet weather. 3. A few days following cultivation particularly where moist soil is thrown to young seedlings—that first cultivation appears to be the most critical one, where one to two inches of soil is thrown to the seedlings so as to control weeds.

An example of the role cultivation plays in aggravating Pythium wilt was brought to our attention last week. As usual, the crop had been seeded in a one to two inch furrow. The first cultivation was under way when the operation was stopped because of rain. Incidentally, it might be added that the "scratches" the grower was using was throwing about one and one-half inches of muck to the young seedlings. By the next day a striking difference in the number of wilted plants in the cultivated rows was apparent. Direct counts in adjacent rows revealed 65 dead plants in the cultivated row and only one dead plant in the non-cultivated row.

"Now," the grower asks, "what can I do about it?" Before answering it should be emphasized that there is no absolute control for this disease. The following precautions, however, should aid materially in reducing it:

1. Level the land as uniformly as possible before seeding. 2. Keep the water table as low as possible and still get good growth. 3. Avoid cultivation when the soil is moist. In this connection, some growers have obtained good success by running through with a "vibrator" so as to dry out the upper few inches of soil a day before cultivating. In addition, the sweeps of the cultivator are set as "flat" as possible so that a minimum amount of soil is thrown to the plant.

Finally it would appear that if pre-emergence weed killers were effective they might aid in controlling Pythium wilt by reducing the weed problem, and, consequently the need for cultivation. Dr. Victor Guzman, Everglades Experiment Station, is an authority on this subject.

Stop heavy damage by potato pests

aldrin

Now you can control the heavy damage caused in your potato fields by wireworms, grubs, and rootworms.

Just spray or dust the soil with aldrin. Double the dosage in peat or muck areas. Then harrow the soil immediately, mixing aldrin with 3 to 6 inches of topsoil.

• ECONOMICAL—A single aldrin treatment will last for at least a year.

• KILLS FAST—Powerful and rapid—and you get all-season protection.

ALDRIN IS NOW RECOMMENDED BY EXPERIMENT STATIONS FOR USE ON EVERY IMPORTANT VEGETABLE CROP IN FLORIDA.

See your local FASCO dealer for further information. Or write Florida Agricultural Supply Company, Box 658, Jacksonville, Florida. Ask for ALDRIN—distributed by . . .

LEO JAMES, Reporter

The Future Farmers of America are having a calendar made, which will have a picture of all the boys in the chapter on it, as a heading. The chapter feels that the calendar will be of benefit to this community. The chapter is selling ads, for the calendar, at a reasonable price. The boys do not want the public to think that this is a donation, because if you buy an ad, you will get your money's worth in advertisement.

Dean Congleton is chairman of the calendar committee and the boys hope that the merchants of Belle Glade will co-operate with him and the other members of this committee. The chapter will start selling ads as soon as possible.

This year the FFA Farm consists of sixty acres; 20 acres for cattle and 40 for truck farming. 40 acres have been planted. There are thirty acres of "Black Valentine" beans, and ten acres of "plentiful" beans. The first 30 acres were planted in a 10-acre block, one apart.

The FFA member to be introduced to the public this week is the Chapter's Vice president, James Chambliss. James is sixteen years old and has been in the FFA for five years.

His past projects have been raising cats and chickens and growing strawberries and leafy vegetables. His present project is raising cattle. James has held the office of sentinel in the past, and he has a good record in the FFA.

Belle Glade F.F.A. Activities Featured In Farm Magazine

The chapter ran 23 cattle on 20 acres of St. Augustine grass. Roselawn stain, for eight months. Their 13 steers gained an average of 200 pounds each without any supplement.

They also have a steel chute made in vogue class which will even hold Sir Money-maker 27th. The Progressive Farmer goes to over 1,275,000 subscribers in the 16 Southern states.

County Commission Needs A Time Piece

It appears that no one will give the county commission the correct time.

This week the board voted to take definite steps to equip the new commission room at the county office building with a clock. Since the building was opened about two months ago, there has been general conversation about getting a clock in the commission room. The board has now decided to do it, particularly when it is opening bids.

Up to now various members of the county's official family has been supplying the correct time. Monday, the commission, on a suggestion by Commissioner Lake Lytal, voted to have a new clock on the wall by next week—even if we have to get a one that advertises soft drinks. Lytal declared.

Routine business was transacted and plans discussed for serving the Sunday American Legion dinner at the Legion Hall on Oct. 16 from 12 noon to 2:00 p.m.

County Fathers Refuse To Build Bridge For A Private Development

The county commission Monday turned down a request to consider construction of another bridge over the West Palm Beach Canal to open up a privately owned subdivision.

A request for the bridge was entered by G. F. Laughlin, who accused the commission of retarding the growth of the area because plans for an additional bridge between Forest Hills Blvd. and Congress Ave. was not in the immediate future.

Commissioner Lake Lytal, sounding the opinion of the board, said there was no justification for bridge plans for the time since the area to be served is only sparsely settled.

Lytal declared that the county is not going to build a bridge such as that proposed by private interests seeking to raise land values.

Commissioner Roy Michael said plans for an overall county highway network is now being studied and that location for bridge such as that proposed by Laughlin, could probably be made a part of the highway masterplan.
